

COMMUNITY WORK ORDER PROJECTS

CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

Does your non-profit organisation need help to deliver community services?

Community Work Orders (CWO) are a way for a person who commits an offence to make amends by performing work which is of benefit to the community.

Northern Territory Correctional Services is calling for expressions of interest from non-profit organisations that would benefit from work undertaken by people subject to Community Work Orders.

Eligibility for Community Work Order projects will be assessed by personnel from Northern Territory Community Corrections.

Expressions of interest are accepted throughout the year.

Note: Current project recipients shall be contacted. An annual assessment on project viability and status will be conducted.

For a copy of the CWO Project Application form, Fact Sheet, or for more information on the registration process, contact your local Northern Territory Community Corrections Office:

Phone the Casuarina Community Corrections Office on (08) 8922 6501 for Darwin;

Or see over for Regional Office contacts.
